DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. Applicants' amendments and arguments, see amendment, filed on 8/3/2005, with respect to Claims 1-25 and 27-32 have been fully considered along with the references listed in the IDS's submitted by the applicants. None of the previously cited reference teaches the Claims 1-27.

Claim 26 had been canceled.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-25 and 27-32 are allowed.

Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance ✓

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art along or in combination fails to teach or make obvious the limitations for a method and system for isochronous data transmission comprises:

“said sink device is operable to respectively receive the isochronous data from said plurality of source devices in a timing that is synchronous with the reference signals and to output the plurality of pieces of received isochronous data to a data processing device which is not connected to said transmission line in a timing that is synchronous with the reference signal." as recited in the independent claims 1 and 24, and

"said first transmission line being a low-speed transmission line having a low data transmission rate and being operable to transmit data from said sink device to said source device, and said second transmission line having a higher transmission rate than the transmission rate of said first transmission line and being operable to transmit data from said source device to said sink device." as recited in the independent claims 11 and 25.

Conclusion

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Richard Chang whose telephone number is (571) 272-3129. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday - Friday from 8 AM to 5 PM.
